TOPIC OF THE MONTH

Be Thankful for What You Have.

Thanksgiving is closing upon us, and I would like everyone to remember those less fortunate than us. Be thankful; not for just what you have, because that can always be taken away, but for the people and friends that help you continue to educate yourself in the way of life; as well as in the martial arts. Remember that there are many people that give up just because they truly believe they don't have a chance in life and that everyone is against them. Take the time to remind those struggling that there is always a chance, as long as you never give up and keep trying. Plus, if you need help, ask for it, put forth an effort; and as long as you're trying to better yourself someone will be willing to help when the going gets tough. We must first help ourselves then we will be able to help others. Help a friend, a stranger or someone in need. This will always make the Holidays mean more and you might just make someone's day a little brighter. Have a Happy Thanksgiving.
